Sheriff's Awards Ceremony

April 21st the Sheriff's Office held their annual awards ceremony to recognize the members of the Sheriffs Office for their work and achievements during the previous year.

Deputies, Detention Officers and Volunteers were recognized for their service during the ceremony. Members were recognized for years of service, participation in Sheriffs Office programs including "Pills Can Kill" and Project Lifesaver and participation in Sheriff's Office specialized units including the Special Response Team and the Dive Team. Members were also recognized for various training achievements and superior firearms qualifications.

Two members were selected by their peers to receive the Deputy and Detention Officer of the Year Awards. Sgt. Beth Meadows received the Deputy of the year Award and Officer Martin Jones received the Detention Officer of the Year Award. "Both of these officers are veterans of the Sheriff's Office who are committed to working hard and making a difference. They have shown remarkable work ethic, professionalism and commitment to the Sheriff's Office and the citizens of Carteret County" said Sheriff Asa Buck.

The Sheriff also presented Captain Dennis Barber with the Sheriff's Commendation Award. This award is in recognition of service above and beyond, personal sacrifice and contributions of time and effort in order to substantially improve the community.

Sheriff Buck congratulated all the award recipients and praised all the members of the Sheriff's Office for their hard work, dedication and service to the community.
