Armed Drug Dealer Arrested after Foot Chase

On Thursday June 23rd deputies arrested Shondre Reels, 22, of Kenny's Way, Beaufort, on numerous felony drug charges following a brief pursuit. Reels led deputies on a short vehicle chase before he jumped out of his vehicle and attempted to flee the area on foot. Reels was armed with a loaded .38 caliber handgun while he was attempting to flee. Deputies were able to disarm Reels and take him into custody without further incident.

"This incident goes to show how quickly things can turn bad. Our deputies face this type of potential danger every day. I commend them for their professionalism, judgment and courage" said Sheriff Asa Buck.

Reels is a major supplier of crack cocaine in the eastern part of Carteret County. The Sheriff's Office has been investigating Reels for months and the investigation culminated in his arrest last week.

Reels is charged with 10 counts of Trafficking Cocaine, 3 counts of Maintaining a Vehicle, Possession with Intent to Sell and Deliver Cocaine, Flee to Elude Arrest with a Motor Vehicle and Carrying a Concealed Weapon.

Reels is in custody and awaiting trial in the Carteret County Jail under a $500,000 bond.
