Wake Forest Park Ranger charged with Sex Offenses

On 09/15/2011 Carteret County Sheriff's Detectives have issued a warrant for arrest on Michael Chad Hagie, 38, of 14500 New light Rd, Wake Forest in connection with a sex offense that occurred in Carteret County in June of 2011.

Hagie, who is the head park ranger at the Holly Point campground at Falls Lake in Wake Forest, has reportedly been suspended.

Hagie, who was arrested by Wake County Sheriff's Office on 09/09/2011 remains in the Wake County Jail on an $800,000.00 bond. He has been charged with fifteen counts of Indecent Liberties with a child and one count of Statutory Rape/Sex Offense, all which are alleged to have occurred in Wake County from March of 2010 to June of 2011 involving two juvenile girls known to Hagie.

This new warrant charges Hagie with one Felony count of "Sexual Activity by a Substitute Parent" which is expected to be served on Hagie today. This charge is the result of a sexual assault that occurred on a juvenile female while the family was staying at their second home on Fairway Rd in Morehead City during the summer.
